

Gaming Employee Registration

Online Application Process

Where are we now?

- Paper process in place since 2004
- Incomplete and illegible applications
- Lag time for data entry
- Human error
- Behind the times!

Where are we going?

- To a “mostly” paperless process
- Applicant will fill out app online
- Computer will register automatically
- Payment and fingerprint receipt still manual
- Applicant Management functions for HR

What has changed?

- Applicant now completes gaming employee registration application online
- HR has great management and reporting tools in the new system
- HR no longer responsible for reviewing gaming employee registration application

What has not changed?

- Gaming statutes (NRS) and regulations
- What information is required on the application
- Fees
- Paper process still exists (in exceptional circumstances)
- Hire and term reports still manual at this time
- GCB background investigation process

Statutes and Regs Review

- NRS 463.0157: Gaming Employee Defined
- NRS 463.335: Gaming employee registration required; System of Records; Background investigations/objections; hearing procedures
- Gaming Regulation 5
 - Duties of licensee/procedures
 - Hire and termination reports of gaming employees
 - Photo requirements

The new process: in a nutshell

- Applicant is hired in a gaming position by HR
- HR creates header and gives applicant worksheet
- Applicant logs in online and completes application
- Applicant gets fingerprinted and purchases money order
- Applicant returns to HR with fingerprint receipt and money order
- HR logs into online system and submits completed app to GCB, mails in money order and fingerprint receipt

Features of the Online Application

- Mandatory fields
- Drop-down menus
- Prepopulated information
- Help pages
- Tabs: Several forms in one place
- System saves work upon logout

Make sure you don't....

Closing your internet browser completely will not save your work!

HR Process

- Applicant Search: Still the first step!
- Register a new applicant
- Existing applicant: Change of location, Renewal, or Change of name
- Submit applications to GCB and mail in paperwork
- Reporting Capabilities
